With this list of best Fox News shows, we mean real or purported instances of Fox & Friends getting the story wrong and not coincidentally looking to benefit the New York Times, Washington Post, or even just to some cushy red-carpet private jet. 8:00AM ET Fox and Friends Week Aria Giovanni/Fox The Fox & Friends Weekend trio is responsible for airing one of the most popular segments on the network each weekend, featuring a celebrity joining them for a little chat. Typically we would say the segments are filled with tired, unimaginative, and poor attempts at drama, and for the first few years of the show there was some truth to that—until show host Steve Doocy started to improve his questions. Now every week on Fox & Friends Weekend, we get a different celebrity guest, and sometimes that guest has the best question of the week. 6:00PM ET Fox & Friends Video_010811_108158.jpg It's the most-watched cable news broadcast in America and by far the No. 1 channel for all-day TV news. 5:00PM ET Fox News Reporting FNC The program, formerly titled Fox Report, is the self-described "flagship" of Fox News's mainstay, breaking news and current-events coverage. It is the centerpiece of Fox News's midday programming. The program is always anchored by Shepard Smith. 4:00PM ET Special Report with Bret Baier Video_20180325_102308.jpg Shepard Smith's Special Report has been around for decades. 3:00PM ET Special Report with 1cdb3666d
